The Class of 1963, "with love ever faithful," gratefully dedicates this issue of the Sacred Hearts Audion to our beloved Chaplain, Reverend Father Livinus Verhaeghe, SS.CC., the GLEAMING EXAMPLE that inspires us, the GUIDING LIGHT that leads us, the GOOD SHEPHERD who watches over us.

"Do you know who this is?" asks Father Livinus, showing his "children" a picture of Pope John XXIII.

Reach out...

and seek your horizons

Every day, every hour, every minute

Every day, every hour, every minute

Every day, every hour, every minute

Every day, every hour, every minute

no matter how small or trite

it may seem is to realize a desire to do something bigger, and better and greater.

Nor is this unique.

Man seeks new horizons from dawn to dusk, cradle to grave.

He searches in every field be it sociology or theology, medicine or government.

In science, especially,

he searches for knowledge. Here the horizon was once the sea, then the sky, and now the stars.

It is fitting for us, as students, to realize and consider this.

It is during these years of learning that characters, hopes, ambitions, and philosophies are formed.

These should be carefully considered—marvelous things which we can follow with pride and conviction throughout life.

In times of bitterness and disappointment we must seek out and find consolation in knowing where we are going, and why.

To have a goal is the first step toward reaching it.

May our horizons ever enrich and spread, until such time as we pass from this place.

For life is eternal, and love is immortal, and even death

My dear Graduates:

A long future awaits you as you graduate from high school. A vast horizon stretches out before you and, to a certain extent, it is an uncharted sea that lies ahead. And yet your training and education in a Catholic School has endeavored to give you a compass and plan for your journey toward new horizons.

You have heard people assert accurately enough that without God we can do nothing. Even with God, however, it is necessary that we do our part. Everything that we do in life must be in harmony with God's plan. Your whole education at the Academy has prepared you for the fulfillment of God's plan in your regard.

Now that you graduate you need to keep clear in your mind that the success of your life and real happiness in your life will depend on how faithful you are to divine guidance day after day. Your observance of His laws and your understanding of His teachings will mean peace and joy and success in life.

Do not be afraid of the future. Have confidence in God and be faithful to Him and be faithful to the Christian training you have received.

Begging God's blessing upon you and your parents and your teachers, I remain

Faithfully yours,

JAMES J. SWEENEY,
Bishop of Honolulu

Dear Graduates of 1963:

At this moment in history you are witnessing an event of a tremendous importance in the history of the Catholic Church. It is the Second Vatican Council, the Second Vatican Council, the twenty-first General Council, during a period of nearly two thousand years.

It is for you a singular privilege to witness such a tremendous manifestation of Unity in the Catholic Church: unity of faith, unity of government and a marvelous unity in the diversity of rites among the Fathers composing this august assembly.

Now as you step into the world as grown-up high school graduates, you must look carefully for these directives that will come forth from the present General Council. Yes, for your own future way of living look toward these directives inspired by the Holy Spirit Who, Christ promised, will dwell forever in this Church.

As far as we already know, there will be a special emphasis on the importance of the laity and on their active cooperation, not only in the Church's liturgy, but also in various parochial activities. Because of your thoroughly christian education, you are prepared to share in the apostolate of the laity. You must take your part in this sphere of Catholic Action. You cannot shirk your responsibilities of leadership in your milieu.

I firmly hope that you will not fail in this your duty as true children of the Sacred Hearts and alumnae of S.H.A.

Devotedly yours in the Sacred Hearts

S.H.A. ALMA MATER

True children of the Sacred Hearts, Loving thee, S.H.A.,
Our dear alma mater we fondly hail With cheers of joy as we say:
One heart, one soul in all we do,
Grateful and loyal too,
Most proud of our colors with love we hold Our cherished white and gold!

We love thee, dear alma mater!
All our lives we will endeavor To uphold thy lofty standards!
Thy motto will guide us forever.
Loving children then we will be, Far and near surely thou wilt see Each of us striving most earnestly In sorrow, or joy, to be Faithful to thee!

TRIBUTES

His name is John.

He lives in Rome, at Vatican City.

His job is perhaps the most difficult, certainly the most demanding, on earth.

He is the Sovereign Pontiff of the Roman Catholic Church.

Described by one observer as "Christ in His humanity,"

John XXIII has allowed no grass to grow

under his feet.

Though Pope for less than five years,

he has set the Church and the world astir

by convening a Vatican Council, the first in almost 100 years.

A vast and complicated undertaking, he has directed it with energy and wisdom.

Time Magazine chose him "Man of the Year," we can but reiterate its praise.

THE SECOND VATICAN COUNCIL

"Where two or three are gathered together for my sake, there am I in the midst of them." (Matthew 18:20)

In October of 1962, millions of Catholics the world over joined together in fervent prayer for the success of the Second Vatican Council.

Convened on October 11, this council brings together

Church theologians and hierarchy representing all men

all cultures,

all points of view.

Its task is to discuss matters of Church doctrine and discipline,

"renew the internal and external life of the Church."

This is no easy task.

Since the last Vatican Council, held in 1870,

many complex and puzzling problems have arisen,

which the Church must solve.

Communism, secularism, the role of the Lay Apostolate, the Missions,

all these topics and many more are being discussed at the Council.

We at Sacred Hearts, realizing the significance of the Council for us as future Lay Apostles, wish to extend our sincerest good wishes and continued prayers to the Fathers of the Council.

The eyes and prayers of the world are focused on Rome.

IN MEMORIAM

His Excellency, the Most Reverend James J. Sweeney, D. D., Bishop of Honolulu, expresses the sentiments of SHA'ers as they bid a last farewell to Sister Damienne Joseph, SS CC.

Kind blue eyes and a sparkling smile, A bright cheery "Good morning," helped to make many a girl's day a bit more worth while!

Hundreds of girls in Hawaii Nei Plus girls—and boys, too, they say out Massachusetts way Knew the kindness and patience, the zeal and the gentleness of her whom God has called away

We treasured her friendship
We valued her prayers.
We witnessed her virtues
We sensed her devotion

Long years of teaching
Many years of suffering Sustained by her fervor
"St. Joseph
Give me patience How often we listened to that whispered prayer!

Adorer, repairer
True child of the Sacred Hearts
Her life centered 'round Her Tabernacled Lord.

She bore the names of those she loved—of good St. Joseph, holy patron and, of course, of her uncle—Damien the Leper-priest of Molokai.

Zealous, she strove to spread his fame
To further the glory of his name That through him Others might come Closer to the God he loved.

Her absence we feel as we did her presence We think of her often, with fondest regard In anger or trial her memory restores us

She has left her mark on our hearts.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN

THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

With the coming of the Atlantic Area a new chapter in the story of the United States was reached. This new chapter introduced a new kind of relationship of wisdom, strength, and peace to a perpetual world of war and fear.

None of these considerations is threatened to shatter an already fragile alliance. After my determination President Kennedy is sending an ultimatum to which the Russians gave a negative answer.
 Here the alliance is maintained.

We at Harvard Harvard's Academy applaud the President for his courageous and realistic moves of that Communist nation.

A son of your pickles is with many memories of the wild and crazy days of old
 This year too experiences we will have

Prayers we said to honor saints

last minute cramming we did

Freshman initiation with all those monsters

Swings came n handy and hopscotch!

We straggled in from recess and never outgrew jump rope

And well we remember the rain

Dear James,
 It has really been a great deal of of us. Had such a together and in India it was a time and the summer winter here we get to have my father in the evening. He with the same. He is good.
 Yours truly
 James
